PANTONE COLOUR OF THE YEAR

Ultra Violet

The prediction for this year's must-have colour in your home packs a real punch

Unveiled by the colour experts at Pantone at the start of the year, mystical Ultra Violet was written in the tea leaves as a big 2018 trend. Vibrant, but cool, on the blue end of the purple spectrum, it brings with it with a sense of creativity, so perfect for inspiring an inventive new interior scheme.

However, embracing Ultra Violet doesn't have to mean a brave new wall colour. Try fabrics, from deep rich velvets to pretty prints, to bring the hue to your look. Or, could your home pull off one of this season's bold, Ultra Violet-inspired galaxy prints?
